

HOW TO BEGIN THE NEW YEAR

Begin the new year right. If you have not insured your home and household goods you are not yet on the right track to safety. Insurance is not expensive, when fire destroys your property. To get along one has to take care of present possessions. Insurance will guard you against the loss of your property by fire. Insure now.

Marshall P. Wilder, humorist, has sent a characteristic post card to Secretary Atkinson, whom he respectfully addresses as "John." It is a portrait of the sender, for every secular day of the week. On the Monday face is depicted unmitigated woe. Tuesday's is wild-eyed. On Wednesday a gleam of rationality appears in the expression. Thursday shows the subject growing merry. Friday he looks intensely happy. Finally, on Saturday the mobile features take on the license of unbridled merriment. There is not room left on the card to contain a man in bed or the Sunday face might be shown.

COOKS ARRIVE FOR THE ALEXANDER YOUNG HOTEL

Among the arrivals on the S. S. Sonoma was Mr. Louis Chevalier who is now in charge as chef of the Alexander Young Hotel cuisine.

Mr. Chevalier has held the position of chef in some of the most prominent hotels in the East and Europe and came here from the Jonathan Club in Los Angeles, one of the most select clubs on the Pacific Coast.

The Los Angeles Times of a recent date has this to say of Mr. Chevalier: "Louis Chevalier, chef of the Jonathan Club, formerly of the Waldorf-Astoria and once a prominent cook in Nice, has spent the evenings of the last three months in carving a large four-column pedestal standing six feet high entitled 'Fantasie Hobain Dubois.' The base is of imitation marble. Resting on this is a four column affair in the center of which is a large urn filled with lilies. This is crowned with a large eagle wearing the banner of the club and clutching in its claws the American flag. Flowers of all colors cover the pedestal. Two beautiful horses are prancing at the base. has also manufactured a big salmon from jelly and fishmeats which he calls Salmon a la Russe. The fish will swim in a tray of highly seasoned gravy."

Mr. Chevalier has brought with him a competent assistant. Manager Hertsche feels that he is to be congratulated on securing the services of two artists who are able to gratify the sensibilities of the most fastidious gourmet.

VISITING JOURNALIST ENTERTAINED AT LUNCH

A luncheon was given yesterday by Governor Carter to H. T. Wills, a representative of the New York Commercial, one of the leading trade journals of America, and his private secretary, Mr. Rogers. Those present at the luncheon, in addition to the Governor and the two guests of honor, were E. I. Spaulding, G. W. Smith, E. H. Paris, A. Gartley, A. Paxton, J. R. Galt and Secretary Atkinson.

All present are interested in the proposed Panpacific Conference and an informal discussion of the matter was indulged in, Mr. Wills expressing his interest in the project and listening to the various ideas advanced by the other guests.

A balky white horse, ridden by a Hawaiian, backed in front of a moving rapid transit car on King street last night, about 8 o'clock, in Palama, and was summarily bunted out of the road. The rider was thrown off but both he and his mount limped away without having suffered any appreciable damage.

THE MARDI GRAS WILL COME A BIT SOONER

By mistake the date of Mardi Gras was put during Lent, so it has been changed, subject to the further consideration of the committee, to February 12.

The tickets will be $2.50 apiece, including everything; and with each ticket the buyer will get a Mardi Gras booklet.

The list of patronesses, to the number of 200, will soon be published. This will include the names of trustees, directors and members of the Kiloana Art League, ladies from the consulates, matrons of society, etc.

The arrangements at the Moana Hotel will include a throne on the makai side of the great dining room, and two or three rows of chairs extending from the throne, on each side of the room, which will be ribboned off for the patronesses.

IRONING SHIRTS

Serial Story No. 1.

The way in which we iron your shirt bosoms is not as destructive as you may imagine. We simply place the bosom on a soft padded board and press it against a steam-heated ironing plate, holding it there until dry and stiff. This method of ironing, we think you will admit, is even easier on the goods than hand work would be, for there is no rubbing or friction used whatever.

Hartman Steam Laundry is the only laundry in Honolulu with a machine to press shirt bosoms in the manner described above.
